

Hunstanton Homework Grid - Summer 1

|   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| We are reading "Dr. Xargle's Book of Earthlets". Think about something else Dr Xargle may wish to teach his Alien pupils aboutEG: "Dr Xargle's Book of Earthling Sports".Write some of the ways he might describe a sport. | Design a new cover for the book you have been writing about Dr Xargle.    | How would Earthlings describe what the Aliens looked like and how they behaved.   |
| Can you build a small model castle?   | Can you find out why knights stopped wearing a full suit of armour and stopped building huge castles?   | Knights had a coat of arms on their shields to show who they were in battle. Can you design your own coat of arms?    |
| Plant your seedlings at home. Make sure you choose the best place for them.Don't forget to water them.                                        | Keep your plant diary up to date. Can you take any photos of your plants? My PlantDiary   | Can you find out about any unusual plants?What is different about them?    |
| Practise learning your 3x and 4x tables ready for YR3 in September.   | Practise counting in <math>\frac{1}{2}</math>s &amp; <math>\frac{1}{4}</math>s. Remember that the digit on top is the Numerator and the digit at the bottom is the Denominator.  | On an analogue clock practise o'clock, <math>\frac{1}{4}</math> past, <math>\frac{1}{2}</math> past and <math>\frac{3}{4}</math> to the hour. If you know these practise telling the time to 5 mins.  |