Dear Parents/Carers,

As you may be aware, the National Education Union (NEU), National Association of Head Teachers (NAHT) and National Association of Schoolmasters Union of Women Teachers (NASUWT) have held ballots of their members on industrial action. I am writing to you today to reassure you about what might take place and what this will mean for your child.

The NAHT and NASUWT have both announced that they did not meet threshold which means that they may re-ballot, but members will not be participating in these strikes. You will by now be aware from the media that members of the National Education Union (NEU) will be taking strike action in schools on several dates.

These dates are;

- 1st Feb 2023 –National Strike
- 1st March 2023- Regional Strike
- 15th+16th March 2023- National Strike

Staff at Greyfriars school, who are part of the NEU, will not be striking on these days and therefore:

we will be open to all pupils as normal.

We will keep you updated with any further important information that arises. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to speak to me or a member of our senior leadership team.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding during this time.

Yours faithfully,

Aidan McGovern
Headteacher
